The tea to be given by the sanctuary committee of the Episcopal church on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Frank Clifton, has been postponed until Tuesday evening, December 13.

"Who's Brown."

The new comedy which comes to the Fraser theater Sunday and Monday night is highly recommended by all the leading papers of the coast, and is positively the funniest play of recent years. Manager Taylor personally recommends "Who's Brown" to all lovers of clean comedy. Seats on sale at Tallman's today. Prices, 25c to $1.

Swauger Insurance Paid.

H. P. Lewis, the insurance man, was at Kamela yesterday and paid to Mrs. Mary Swauger, the mother of Seymour Swauger, deceased, the sum of $1547 on an insurance policy of $1000, the balance of $547 being due on a mortuary dividend.—La Grande Observer.

Thomas O'Brien deserted in Arizona from the regular army being desperately homesick, and tramped and beat his way home to Brockton, Mass., and died of pneumonia and exhaustion the day he reached there.

FROM LAST TO FIRST

People used to take plain cod liver oil for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles after other remedies had failed.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern idea of cod liver oil—the first instead of the last resort when such ailments appear.

The taste of the oil is not apparent and the oil itself is partly digested—makes it easy for the stomach. Scott's Emulsion is a quick, reliable help at all ages.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and blackheads. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel fine when I rise in the morning. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets."

CREDITORS' SALE

SEEK TO RECOVER FROM

F. WELLS' PROPERTY.

Seven Creditors Represent a Total Indebtedness of About $2000—Long List of Valuable Chattel Property—All Theories of Foul Play Have Been Abandoned in Accounting for Wells' Disappearance—He is a Single Man and Little Known of Him.

Sheriff's sale of the property of Frank Wells, the missing Ukiah rancher, to satisfy the demands of creditors, is on this afternoon at Johnson and Court streets. There are seven creditors with claims aggregating $2000.

The property to be disposed of consists of 50 head of cattle, 12 head of horses, one jackass, eight sheep and three pigs. The real estate of Wells is secured by mortgage held by Mrs. Lina B. Sturgis.

The creditors who are to be satisfied by the sheriff's sale are: Mrs. Lina B. Sturgis, H. H. Wessel, F. S. Younger & Son, S. A. Alloway, F. S. Seary and W. S. Byers.

Wells, who had resided in Pendleton and Umatilla county for a number of years, disappeared about two months ago from his Ukiah ranch. Foul play was for a time suspected until numerous creditors began to institute suits in the circuit court and now it is generally accepted that Wells ran away to escape payment of heavy debts. He is unmarried and little is known of him before he came to Umatilla county.

BROKE HIS HAND.

Accident Ended the Mullen-Mitchell Bout Last Night.

What gave promise of being the prettiest fight ever seen in a local prize ring, was declared off at the end of the third round last night because of a serious injury to the right hand of Jack Mitchell, one of the principals. Barney Mullen and Mitchell were to have boxed 10 rounds for decision at the Fraser last night.

Mullen is the heavier of the two men and is a clever boxer. The fight was clearly his throughout the three rounds, although Mitchell put up a good exhibition, and in by no means slow when it comes to ring tactics.

F. C. Franz, of Milwaukee, Wis., refereed the bout last night. At the close of the third round, when it was learned that Mitchell was injured, he declared the fight off. Mitchell fractured a small bone in the right hand by colliding with Mullen's elbow.

"WHO'S BROWN?"

Genuine Comedy Coming to the Fraser Sunday and Monday Nights.

The Evening Telegram speaks of "Who's Brown?", which comes to the Fraser Sunday and Monday nights, in the following flattering manner:

Tonight "Who's Brown?" comes to the Marquand Grand. It is a new farce comedy and the play is given flattering notices along the route. "Who's Brown?" comes to Portland with one of the best reputations of any show of the season and it is guaranteed to deliver the goods. Not only is the performance lively and bright, but the company is first-class. Those who fail to see "Who's Brown?" will miss a fine show and will have something to regret.

The notices published in Puget Sound and Eastern papers as to the merits of the entertainment are not from the press agents, but from the men who are paid to know—the critics. The critics, without exception, unite in declaring that "Who's Brown?" is one of the strongest attractions for funlovers that has visited the west this year. The engagement is for tonight, tomorrow afternoon and night.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the undersigned until Saturday, December 10, 5 p. m., for the erection and completion of a frame residence for S. S. Butler. A certified check for one hundred dollars to accompany each bid to be forfeited to the owner should the successful bidder fail to enter into bond within five days after he has been awarded the contract. Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the architect, room 12, Judd building.

J. C. E. TROUTMAN, Architect.

S. S. BUTLER, Owner.

Club Notes.

Mrs. Henry Bean and Mrs. E. R. Conklin will be hostesses for the Thursday Afternoon Club, Thursday, December 8, at the home of Judge and Mrs. Bean. Subject, "Most Prominent Contemporary Women Writers."

The Current Literature Club will be entertained by Mrs. Edwin Switzer and Mrs. Ernest Skiles at the home of the former, Friday, December 9. The program will be on Hoffman, as already announced.

Returned From Convention.

County Recorder of Conveyances William Folsom returned last night from Portland, where he attended the meeting of the Oregon county clerks, recorders and auditors. "I believe," said Mr. Folsom, "that much good will result from the meeting. Papers were prepared on subjects pertaining to matters in their various departments. Copies of these are in the hands of all the clerks and recorders of the state."

The secretary of the interior has withdrawn from all forms of disposal of the following public lands needed for irrigation purposes: North Platte, Wyo., 15,760 acres; Colorado river, 13,446 in California and 23,040 in Nevada; Milk river, Montana, 46,000.

The best $2.50 shoe on earth for men and women is to be found at the Peoples Warehouse. While you are listening to the music this Saturday night, visit the shoe department.
